January Art Camp: Murals

January All Day Art Camps: Murals and Incredible You!

During the January All Day Art Camps we focused on life size mural paintings. The topic was: You! After a couple of doodle warm-up exercises the students worked in pairs to trace each other's body shapes on large sheets of paper. Then they set about creating artwork within that shape and outside of it. The results were stunning :-)

Incredible You!

The book "Incredible You!" by Wayne Dyer has been a favorite of Skye and mine for many years. It's message is that we all have special gifts and talents. The book guides you and your child through a series of questions.

We took turns reading a chapter of the book at the start of our day to find inspiration for creating a life size "Incredible Me" painting.
